“For You are my lamp, LORD;
And the LORD illuminates my darkness.
“For by You I can run at a troop of warriors;
By my God I can leap over a wall.
“As for God, His way is blameless;
The word of the LORD is refined;
He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him.
“For who is God, except the LORD?
And who is a rock, except our God?
“God is my strong fortress;
And He sets the blameless on His way.
“He makes my feet like deer’s feet,
And sets me on my high places.”

From the President

Several years ago, after taking seriously ill, Terry Marzen asked if I would be willing to replace him as the president of this congregation. It was out of the blue and caught me by surprise. With his deteriorating condition requiring ever higher levels of constant medical attention, how could I refuse him? I had never been a congregation president, so I asked him what the position was about. His reply was something like, "You run the business of the church." Today, I know exactly what he meant, but it got me to thinking (a dangerous pastime, I know), "What really is the business of the Church?"

Being hampered with the mind of a fighter pilot, it took me a little while to understand (ok, more than a little while). Jesus did not die for His bride (the Church) so that we could hold council and voters' meetings, campus workdays, budget discussions, district conferences, and the like (but we do these things for the sake of temporal good order). No, He died to save her by forgiving her many sins! So, the business of the Church is forgiveness. We receive it every Sunday morning, even tasting it in the Body and Blood of our Lord. And yet, because of the old Adam still resident in each of us, even as Christians, how hard it is for us to be quick to forgive others and to avoid judging them (or "laying down the law"). Sanctification is not for sissies!

Jesus never promised us an easy time here below in the Church militant. The cruciform life of a Christian is marked by daily combat with sin, death, and the devil. Think about St. Paul during his ministry and his personal challenges with inner struggles "...what I don't want to do, this I keep on doing." And then there was the issue of the thorn in his side. Think about this: since these things happened to one of the greatest apostles, it certainly happens to us. But when we confront our sins, repent of them, and confess them, we draw strength when He tells us through the audible Word of our pastor, "I forgive you all your sins." Not just a few of them, not only the ones we remember - all of them! There is no greater gift on this side of heaven than the forgiveness of sin in Christ. We can't buy it or "do our part" for it; we must receive it for free in certain faith that it will do what the Lord has promised: it reconciles us to the Father and saves us! That is the business of the Church here on Earth.

From the Board of Christian Life

Each church service we have the blessing of hearing the elders read the Word of God and the pastor preach the Word of God. The scriptures below are suggestions for us to continue attending to God's Word as we go through our week. We have so many things competing for space in our lives, but none are more important than enjoying the gift of God's Holy Word every day. -Jennifer Currid

August 7 – Trinity 8

Matthew 7:17 – “So, every healthy tree bears good fruit.” As fruit follows from a good tree, so our good works flow from the cleansing the Lord has given us in Holy Baptism. In Baptism we have a new identity – we are the “new man in Christ” as St. Paul says. Of course, on this side of glory we still have the world, the devil, and the flesh to wrestle with. That means that our growth in sanctification is a struggle. So if it's sometimes a struggle for you to be generous – don't give up! Keep fighting the good fight of faith, trusting in your Lord and His provision.

August 14 – Trinity 9

Luke 16:8 – “For the sons of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than the sons of light.” The sons of this world know that they should use their wealth wisely to provide for their future. Shouldn't we “sons of light” know that the wealth God has allowed us to manage should be managed for God's purposes in the roles He has given us to play in Church, home, and society? Don't we have more to live for, more to work for, and more to give toward?

August 21 – Trinity 10

Luke 19:46 – “It is written, 'My house shall be a house of prayer,' but you have made it a den of robbers.” The Lord's House is not a house of merchandise or profit – it is a House of Prayer where people freely offer up their petitions to the Lord and their produce for His purposes. Not compulsion or sharp dealing, but generosity and joy characterize the House of the Lord. “Freely you have received; freely give.” That's pretty much the opposite of the world's marketplace!

August 28 – Trinity 11

Luke 18:14 – “I tell you, this man went down to his house justified, rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.” Our works never impress God, they are always lacking in some way. They always fall short of perfection. So there is no point in taking pride in them. But a broken and contrite heart the Lord will not despise – and the works that flow from a broken and contrite heart are indeed pleasing to the Lord in and through Christ. And these works will be used by the Lord for His purposes and to His glory! <https://resources.lcms.org/>

From the Board of Social Ministry

Brothers and Sisters in Christ, It is time to start our Social Get Togethers. I am willing to do once a month. I have some ideas such as: Movie Night, Game night, Bingo Night, Dining In, Dining Out. Dining Outs would be in Crestview, unless we come up with a carpool system so that us old folks that are not crazy about driving at night could attend. This is just thoughts in my head, so any suggestions are Welcome.

Richard, our prayers are with you for a full recovery. You will be missed.

I hope everyone enjoyed a great summer and that God will continue to Bless you throughout the year.

From the Deaconess

Some of you know my fervent interest in how God fearfully and wonderfully made us: spirit, mind, and body. The vocations of Physician Assistant and Deaconess have provided me an unique vantage point in observing this connection. In all my studies, in reading and research, it is evident to me that the awareness of this connection in Christianity has been lost, skewed, or not fully understood. During my recent visit to the Seminary in Fort Wayne, I was fortunate to spend time with my dear friend and mentor, Dcs. Amy Rast, director of the Deaconess program there. I shared with her my thoughts and he supported me in my theorizing stating she, too, agrees with the anemic approach to this subject in our LCMS community. She along with a few others, have encouraged me to research and write about this. So, my friends if you are willing, I will take you with me on this journey. It will be a slow road but an exciting and interesting one. Right now, I have more questions than answers, but I suppose that is a good place to be.

My premise was launched by 1 Thesalonians 5:23, "Now may the God of peace Himself sanctify you entirely; and may your spirit and soul and body be kept complete, without blame at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ." What seems to be a simple benediction was captured in Paul's letter on purpose. The Holy Spirit does not waste words and so each one contains meaning. He reveals to us here that our sanctification is for us entirely, "wholly." Our entire being, spirit, mind, and body, is being sanctified. When we ponder sanctification, our spirit is usually what we are concentrating on and rightly so. However, here we learn it is not just the spirit, but our mind and body also are being sanctified!

Here enters my deluge of questions. What does this sanctification look like? How is the knowledge and/or understanding of this sanctification helpful to us this side of heaven? How and why is it accomplished? Where does suffering fit it? Is suffering and sanctification two sides of the same coin? Does what we do or don't do help or hinder this sanctification? Where does piety fit in? How does one part of us affect the others? Questions, questions, and more questions!

My goal over the foreseeable future is to briefly write each month in the newsletter what I've studied, read, and discovered in response to these questions. It's a start!

Pax Christi,

Dcs. Heather Bien

From Grace Cafe

Brothers and Sisters in Christ, the first thing I would like to give a Big Thank You to all of the volunteers at Grace Cafe for the last two months and a special Thank you to those volunteers that allowed to go see my brother in Fort Wayne, knowing I didn't have to worry about Grace Cafe was really a big help.

Just because summer vacation is over, I still need strong backs on Monday for the Food Truck. Frank if feel up to it I would love to have you back, you can help unload or be the "Boss" well maybe "Straw Boss".

In case you are wondering Grace Cafe is doing well. We have been managing to serve about 25 to 30 people, eating at the Cafe; when we add the take outs and seconds we come in at about 45.
